A Special Celebration

*Presidential Inauguration
April 19, 1986*

A statement from our president Dr. Martinson

One of the things I like most about High Point College is its community spirit with its own life and ethos. A community implies that people are working together with common purposes and principles. Here at High Point College we are colleagues in a cooperative enterprise, a "collegium." This college is special because of so many people who have given it a sense of direction, coherence, optimism and collegiality. God has blessed us.

Please allow me to extend to you, the students, in the 1986/87 academic year appreciation for your support, and invite your continued commitment to character education in an academic setting.

Jacob Martinson

Martinson Inaugurated as sixth president

Jacob Christian Martinson Jr., was sworn in as the sixth President of High Point College on April 19 in ceremonies held on the lawn of Roberts Hall.

Under a bright sun that sent the audience to the shade of trees, programs and mortarboards, Martinson, who has been at the college since August of 1985, took the oath of office from W. Roger Soles, chairman of the Board of Trustees. After a series of statements by constituents of the community and state which lauded Martinson's personality, character and professional accomplishments the program continued.

Nancy L. Lyles, representing the trustees, said the selection of Martinson as president "can only be described as awesome." She said that Martinson's "life embodies all the qualities sought" by the trustees as they searched for a successor to Charles R. Lucht.

Student Government Association President Jeanne Davis said Martinson was an "impeccable example" for students to follow. "From one president to another," she said, "I congratulate you."

James A. Stanley, representing the alumni, said that the college was now "in good hands," Dr. John E. Ward, Jr., speaking for the faculty, said he was confident that Martinson would "lead us into the realm of excellence." High Point Mayor Judy Mendenhall said a bond should be developed as both communities, the smaller one of the college and the larger one of the city, continue to develop.

Robert B. Jordan III, lieutenant governor of North Carolina said that such schools as High Point College formed the "cornerstone of the higher education community." Thomas K. Hearn Jr., president of Wake Forest University, speaking on behalf of the higher education community, said, the "central task is the trained intellect."

Bishop L. Bevel Jones III, representing the United Methodist Church, said that Martinson was "the right person in the right place at the right time" to lead a "nonsectarian but avowedly Christian" institution in the search for truth.

In the inaugural address Bishop W. Kenneth Goodson said that a "cloud of witnesses," those who had played roles in the history of the college, were observing the ceremony. "Someday we will know that. Mere intellect isn't enough."

Goodson reminded the new president, and the audience, that high office demands sacrifice and responsibility. He quoted the Biblical warning that "To whom much is given, much shall be required."

Prayers during the ceremony were given by the Rev. Dr. Thomas B. Stockton, minister of Wesley Memorial United Methodist Church, the Rev. Milford V. Thumm, minister of First United Methodist Church, and the Rev. Ben W. Curry, chaplain of the college.

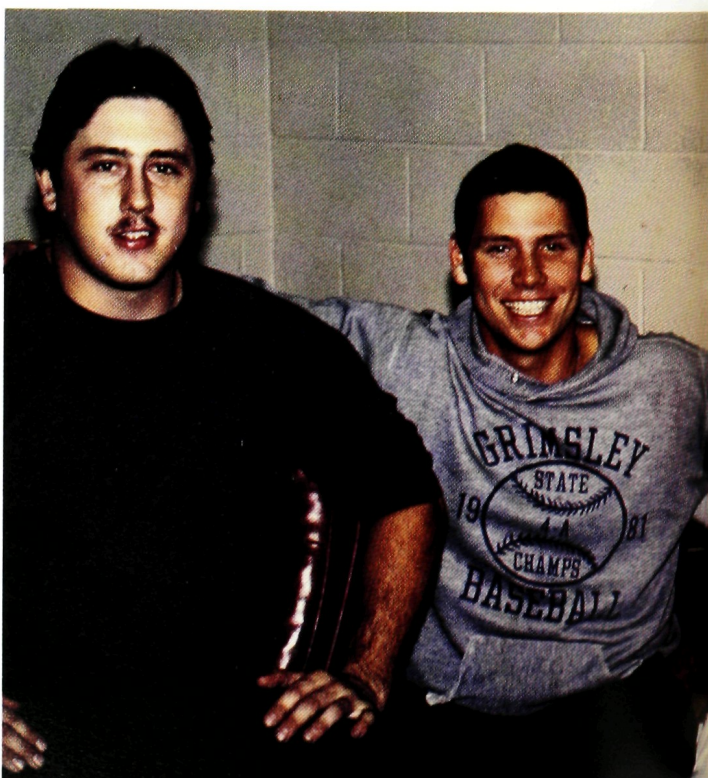

Music and anthems were presented by the Market Street Brass and the High Point College Singers.

Several hundred people attended the ceremony, including delegates from other colleges, faculty and staff members, trustees, visitors and a small number of students.

special day:

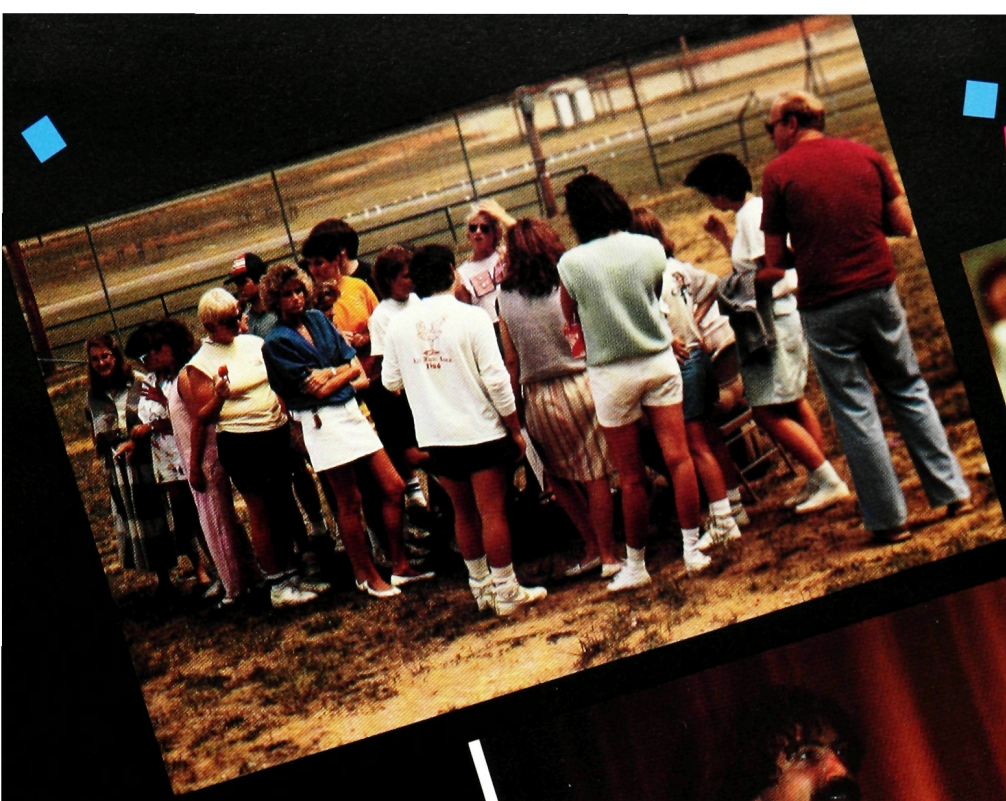

It's a good time all the time at High Point College. Students find academics a challenge, but still find time for their special interests.

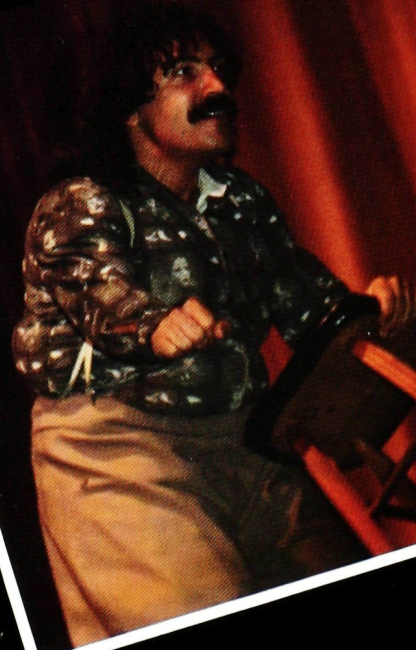

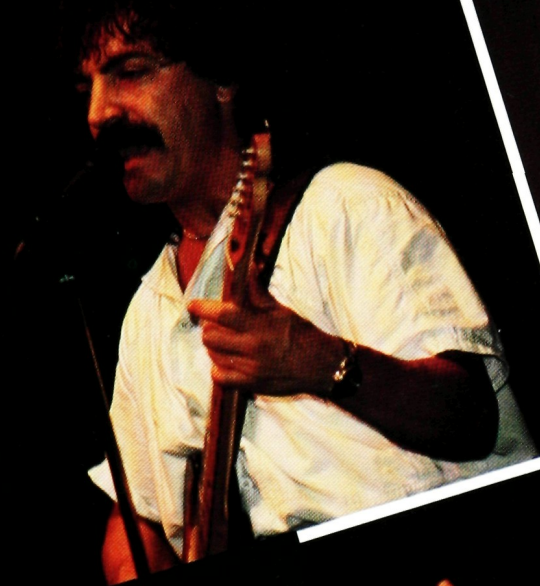

Remarkable

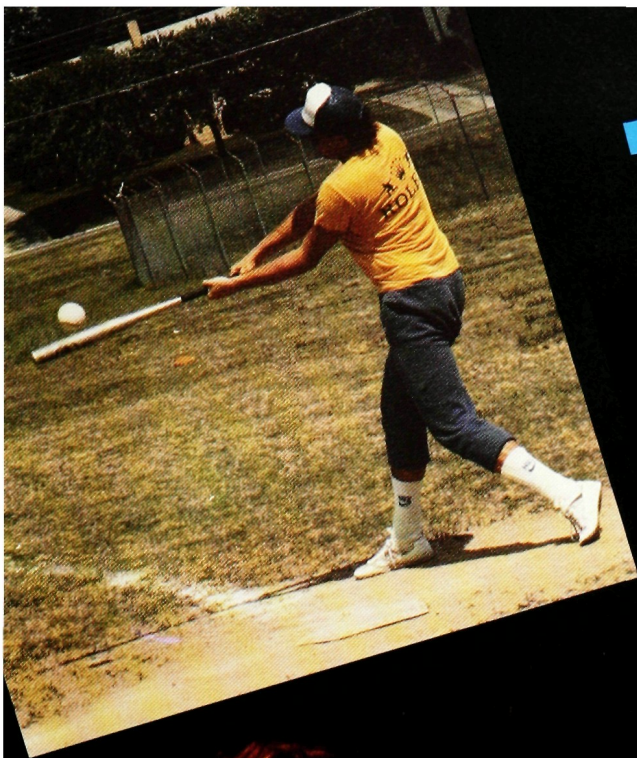

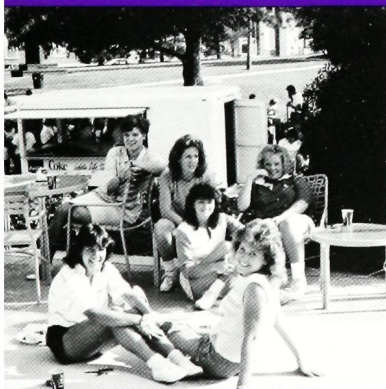

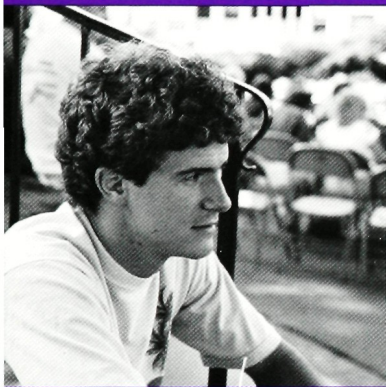

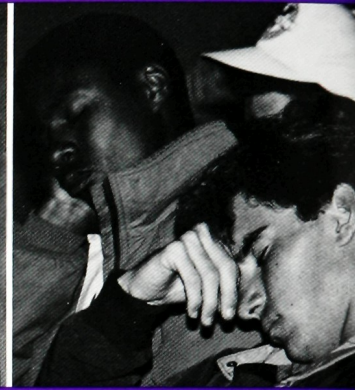

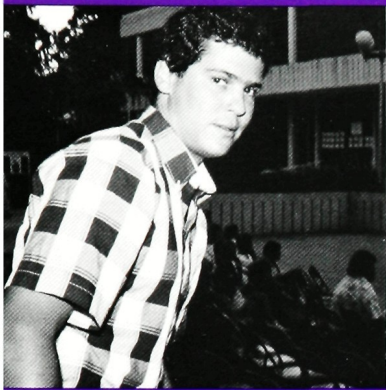

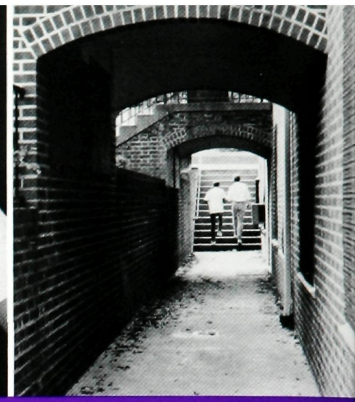

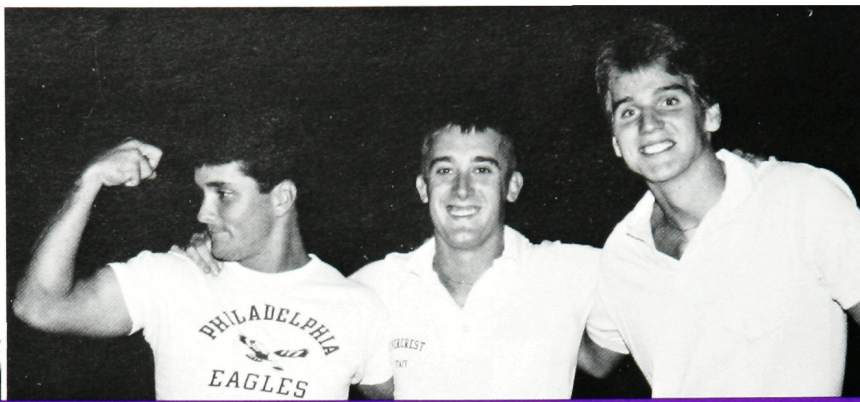

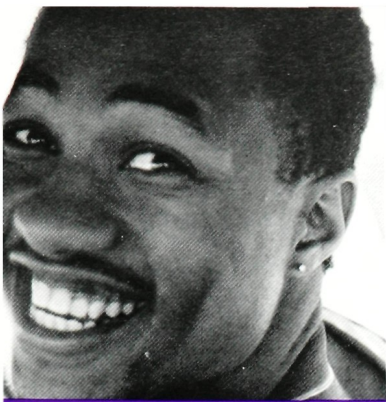

From classroom to dorm room, students are offered a learning experience.

"In all of my wildest dreams I never thought that I would have the opportunity of traveling to the Holy Land, much less studying and touring for three weeks."

Those are the words that begin Rev. Ben Curry's article, A Dream Come True, after his experience in the Holy Land provided through a seminar for campus ministers.

During this seminar, Ben was able to explore the land and the religious traditions of Jewish, Christian and Islamic people. He learned about Jewish people and their state and he set out to try and understand the conflict of Israel and the Middle East. He said that Jerusalem is the best place to see the religious influences.

A visit with a Palestinian who taught in public schools was a special experience. During this visit, he and Ben talked about the lack of rights that he, as a Muslim, has. He also spoke about how the Palestinian people receive less funds than the Jewish community.

Ben recalled seeing the barbed wire fences and the many soldiers, which were indications of the conflict between Israel and the Middle East. He also noticed that the Christians kept a low profile and this was shocking to him.

Ben feels that with these new experiences he is more sensitive to the needs of the Palestinians and the Jews who are struggling to live together. In addition, he felt that his group built a special bond and have many fond memories.

Mr. Kenneth Morse joined the High Point College staff this year in the business department as Coordinator of International Programs. He joined the staff to take advantage of the chance to build this new program.

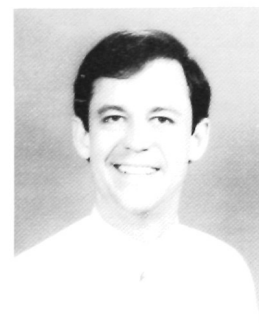

Mr. Morse is Idaho-born but claims Colorado as his home state. But he wanted a small-town environment for himself and his family and after searching, he finally decided on High Point.

Mr. Morse's educational background includes a bachelors degree in economics and business and a masters degree in international economics from the University of Nebraska. He also received a masters degree in international administration from the University of Oklahoma and a Ph.D in international studies from the University of Denver.

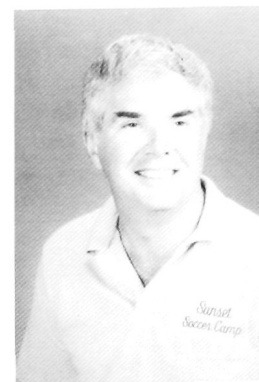

Mr. Morse has noticed that here at High Point College there are basically two types of students, "those that are here to get by and those that are here to learn." He says that he enjoys teaching both types but undoubtedly the ones that are here to learn are the most enjoyable students!

Good luck here at HPC, Mr. Morse and all the other new faculty members!

Activities & Organizations

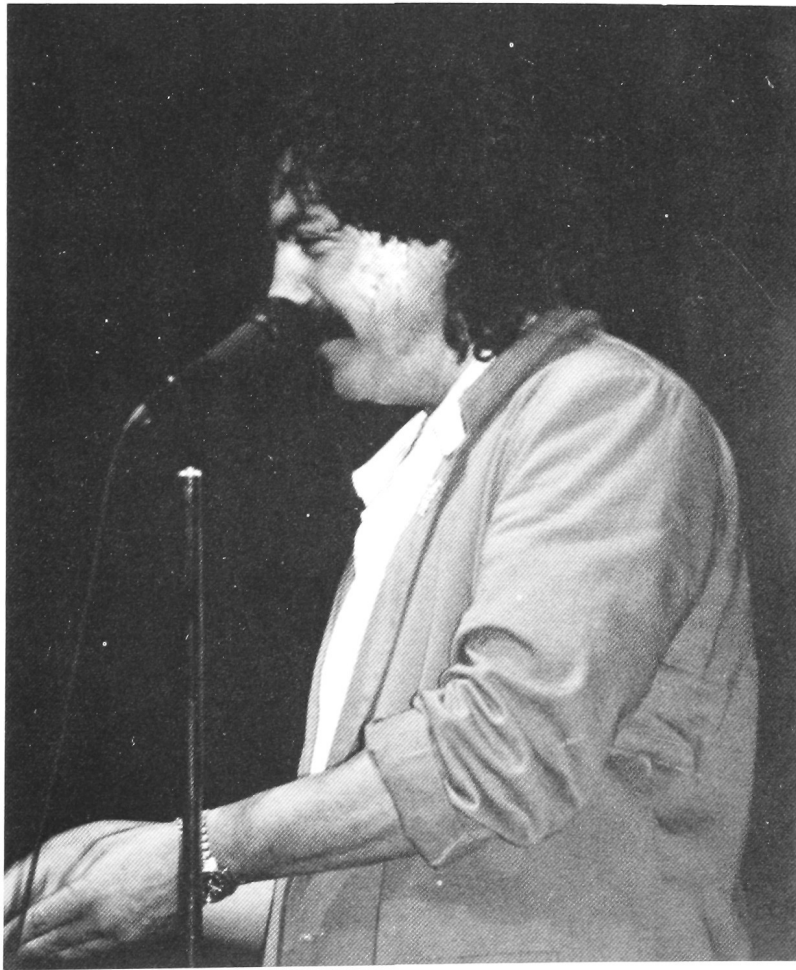

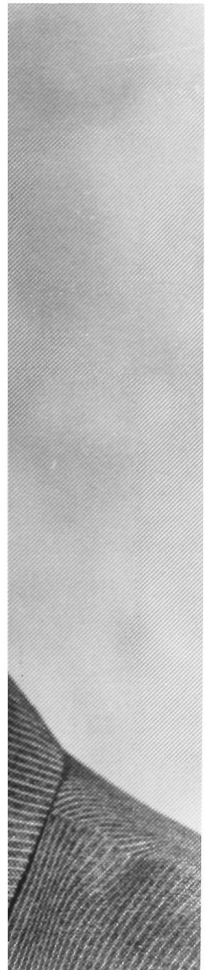

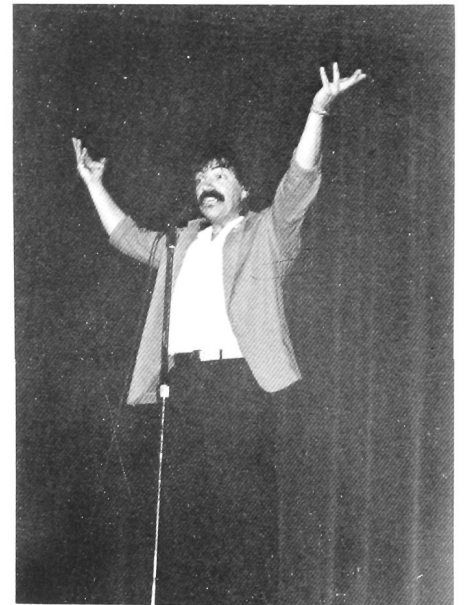

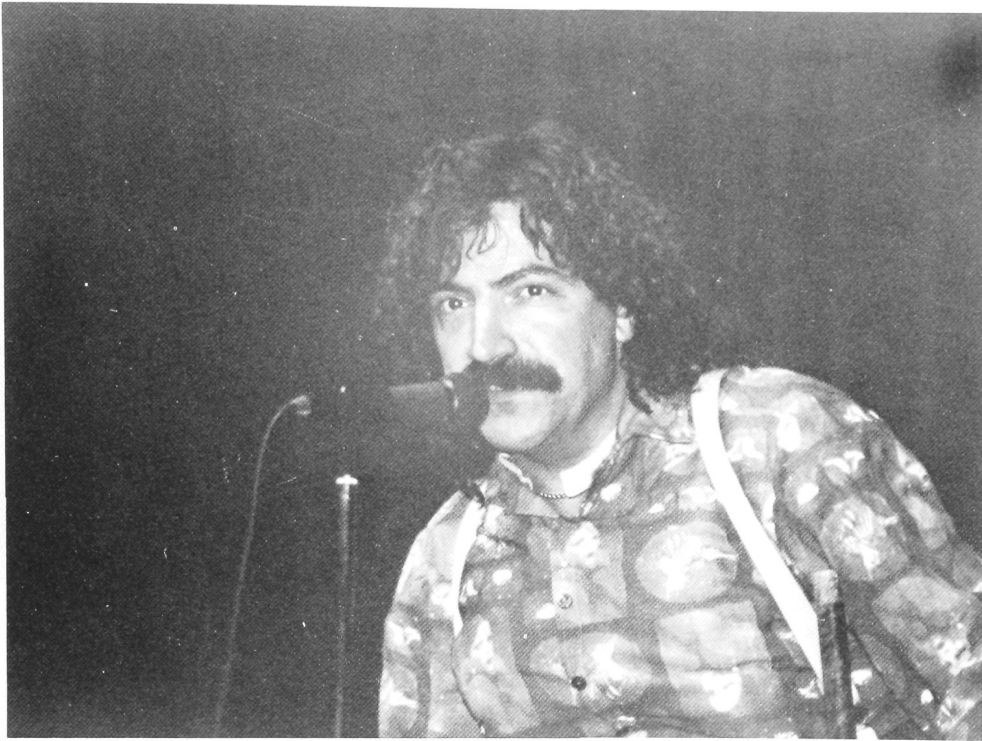

Craig Karges

Psychic Craig Karges performed in the memorial auditorium during Last Class Bash 1986. His unbelievable blend of illusion and psychic happenings astonished the audience. He revealed the audience thoughts and read the serial numbers on a dollar bill, not to mention levitating a table.

Tim Settimi

Settimi combined skating, singing, guitar, flute, ventriloquism, mime, and comedy to create one of the most exciting one-man shows High Point College has ever seen during Last Class Bash.

Tim Cavanaugh

Tim Cavanaugh was an audience favorite. A good natured, inventive comedian, he kept the High Point College Students laughing.

Carl Rosen

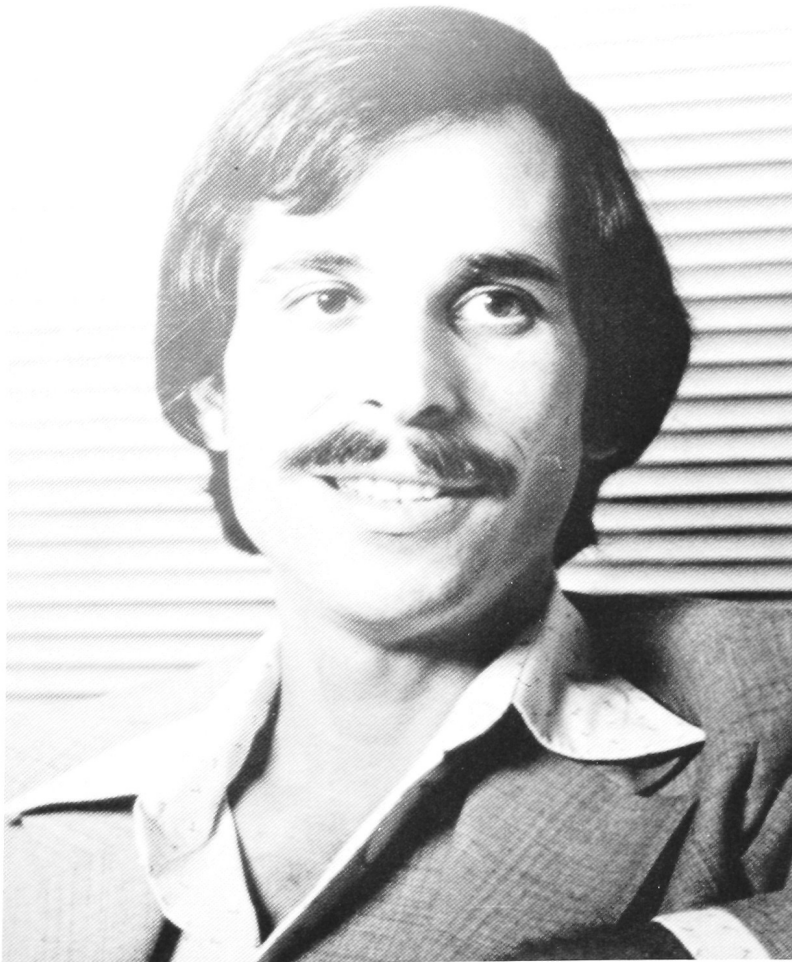

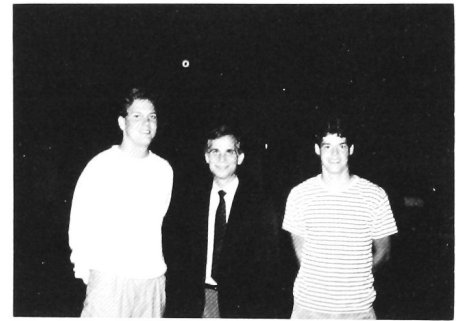

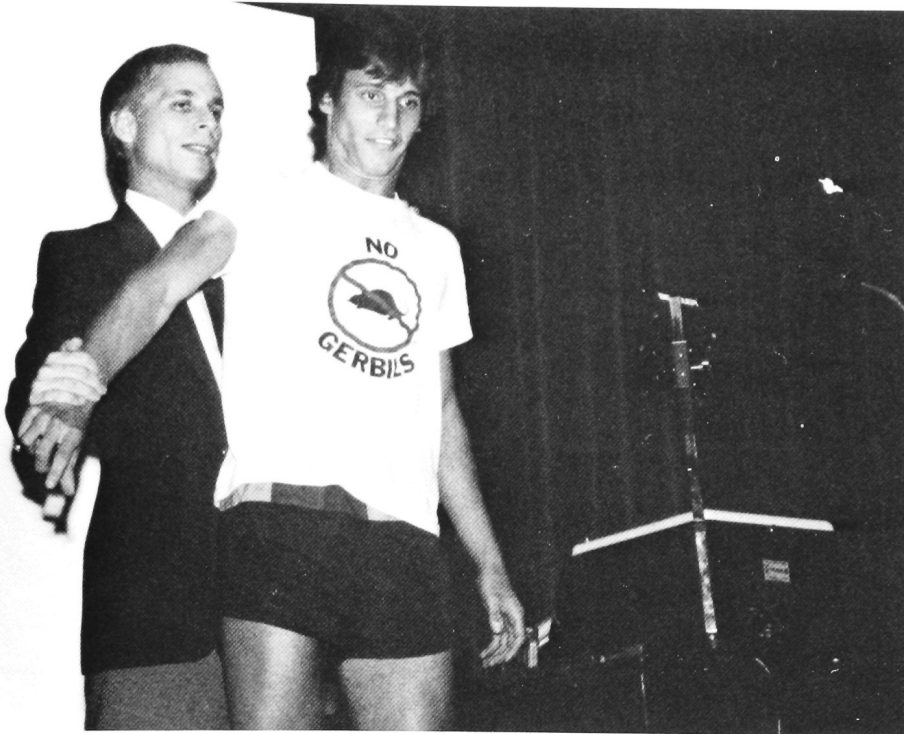

A returning favorite, Carl Rosen entertained the incoming freshmen and returning students with piano comedy during orientation, 1986.

David Naster

Naster a one-man show featured his animated sense of humor and innovative musical abilities. Naster entertained the High Point College students October 4, 1986.

Jerry Teplitz

An author, attorney, and speaker, Teplitz appeared on the High Point campus to show students how to manage exam time stress managing first year stress, how to relax and how to use effective leadership skills.

The Charlotte Symphony Orchestra

"The Charlotte Symphony Orchestra enjoyed a wonderful evening!" said Susan Mangnuson, their assistant manager. Their performance in the High Point College auditorium consisted of pieces by Rossini, Mozart, and Beethoven.

The Shady Grove Band

Bringing a mix of country, jazz, and bluegrass the Shady Grove Band entertained the students and faculty at a picnic on the lawn of the Herman and Louise Smith library.

The Baptist Student Union is an organization of Christian Fellowship. The BSU has weekly meetings consisting of a variety of speakers leading discussions on a previously chosen topic by the group. The BSU has socials with BSU groups from other schools during the year. Also, the Baptist State convention has a weekend retreat in the fall and another in the spring of each year. The BSU welcomes people of all denominations for a great opportunity to grow in Christ and fellowship with students across the state.

Writer's Club

The Writer's Club is composed of students and faculty members who are dedicated to the promotion of creativity within the High Point College Community through writing, the visual arts, and photography. The club is open to all students who have an interest in any of the forms writing. Members attend writing workshops, talk with area writers and artists, and produce a small literary magazine, "The Lamplighter," during the fall semester.

Student Government Association

The Student Government Association is open to all students and it's responsible for all of the campus activities. They oversee campus activities and organizations through funding of the Student Government budget and leaders.

Zenith Deadlines Deadlines

The Zenith staff went without credit this year due to the English Department dropping it from the list of practicums. Staff meetings started out strong with many eager to help and dwindled to a dedicated few who worked quite steadily to produce this book. It was a learning experience for those who had never worked on a yearbook and old business to those who had.

Apogee

Every spring the Apogee staff compiles creative work of the High Point College community in the form of poetry, fiction, photography, and art work into a literary magazine of quality and imagination.

The Apogee gives creative talents on campus the chance to be seen and heard in print, an outlet for creative thought, regardless of form, that we all can be proud of.

This year's Apogee was edited by A.B. Billings, advised by Dr. John Moelmann, with staff assistance by Melissa Mize and Lora Songster.

Hi-Po

The campus newspaper, The Hi-Po, went to great lengths to inform the community of news, events, and editorial thought on issues of importance to the community. In order to better inform the campus, the Hi-Po went into a weekly format for the first time in ten years.

Practicum Instructor Dr. Marion C. Hodge and Newspaper Advisor and Columnist Gary Foster helped students hone their journalistic skills with ever-increasing efficiency at news gathering and reporting.

The Hi-Po was edited this year by A.B. Billings, Editor-In-Chief, and Paula S. Reising, Assistant Editor.

Society for Advancement of Management

As one of the oldest professional management organizations, S.A.M. provides an opportunity for students to increase management skills and expertise through participation in programs and services designed to improve the professional quality of their knowledge, performance, and leadership ability. Places like Thomasville Furniture, Kimberly Clark, Hatters Yachts, RJ Reynolds, Stroh's and many other companies become easily accessible to High Point College students through SAM. With tours and seminars, classroom knowledge comes alive. By the end of the year, members can say SAM is more than "just something to put on a resume." It's a fun, enjoyable way to gain valuable knowledge and experience.

The Society For Historical and Political Awareness

The Society for Historical and Political Awareness is an organization dedicated to promoting interest in historical and political affairs. This interest includes current research, an awareness of professional opportunities, current social trends, and special programs. The Society holds events such as campus-wide debates on current political issues and a model United Nations for representatives from local high schools.

Kappa Delta Pi

Kappa Delta Pi is an Honor Society in Education. It is a National Organization whose purpose is to encourage excellence in scholarship, high personal standards, improvement in teacher preparation, distinction in achievement, and personal contributions to education. Our chapter is Kappa Mu and we were awarded this charter on May 27, 1985. To become a member of this honorary society, an individual must be invited by a local chapter and be approved for candidacy. This invitation is based on a student's high academic achievement, commitment to education, and a professional attitude. Members receive certain privileges which include being a member for life, active membership, and ability to attend Regional Conferences and Convocations. Members are expected to maintain the ideas of the Society, to strive to extend its influence, and to maintain regular attendance at meetings. The officers are Sheri Hall as President and Kay Link as Secretary.

American Humanics

High Point College is one of seventeen colleges and universities which is affiliated with American Humanics, Inc. AH provides a voluntary program of co-curricular activities designed to enrich the classroom instruction of students in, but not limited to, the department of Behavioral Sciences and Human Service. It helps students identify and meet current professionals in their career field, provides field trips, workshops, and annual retreat, seminars, and realistic "hands on" experiences associated with the career field.

Alpha Delta Theta was founded in 1954 as a continuation of the religious education majors club. Today, ADT is a service sorority whose motto is "Sisters in the Service of God." Its members now possess a variety of majors. We are a sisterhood that strives to promote Christian faith and fellowship. ADT serves the HPC campus as well as the High Point community. Our services include such projects as cleaning up the campus, painting decorations on the campus center window at holidays, walking the CROP walk for World Hunger, distributing favors to the Wesleyan Arms Retirement Center, and serving as hostesses at Market Square for the National Historic Society, among others. In addition to services, we also provide social activities for our members including a fall retreat, pledge dance, and a spring formal. Through these projects we share our Christian fellowship with the campus and the community.

Advisors:

Dr. Leo Weeks, Dr. Fred Yeats, Dr. John Ward

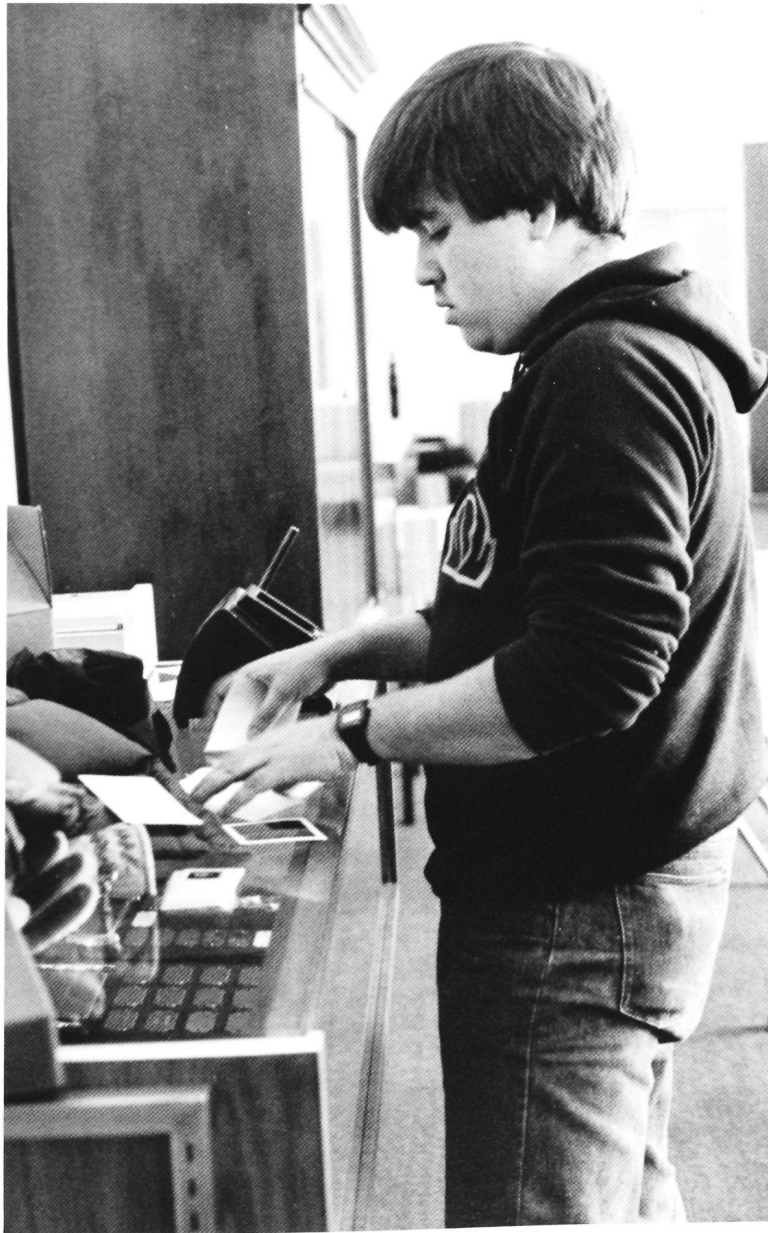

The purpose of the Biology Majors Club is to promote interest in biology, especially areas of current research; to provide an opportunity for students and biology faculty, as well as other biologists to share and interact in biological endeavors; and to create an awareness of opportunities, current trends, special programs, and developments in the area of biology. The activities of the club are designed to supplement and enhance the regular academic program.

Alpha Phi Omega

The purpose of APO is to assemble college students in a national service fraternity who will contribute to the Fellowship of the principles which govern their organization and are embodied in the Boy Scout Oath and Law. These principles are to develop leadership, to promote friendship, and to provide service to humanity.

Sigma Delta Pi

Sigma Delta Pi honors those students who attain excellence in the study of the Spanish language, literature, and culture. It allows students with a common interest in the Hispanic language to meet and participate in various activities. It also offers a chance for Spanish speaking students to exchange their ideas, concerns, problems, and knowledge. To qualify for membership, students must have completed three years of college-level study in Spanish with at least three semester hours at the third year level. The minimal grade point average in Spanish coursework allowed is 3.0. The student must also rank in the upper 35% of his/her class.

Phi Sigma Iota

Phi Sigma Iota honors junior and senior undergraduate students of foreign languages who have at least a B average in their entire college work and all foreign-language courses; have completed at least one course at the third year level; and rank in the highest 35% of their class in general scholarship. It also honors outstanding foreign-language faculty of colleges and universities. It is the highest academic honor in the field of foreign languages. It promotes international communication and understanding, and a sentiment of amity among nations. The High Point chapter promotes these ideals by sponsoring at least two cultural events per year, which are open to the entire student body.

GREEK LEADERSHIP — IFC/ PANHELLENIC COUNCIL

The Inter Fraternity Council, better known as IFC, is the governing body of the four national social fraternities. The Panhellenic Council is the governing body of the four national social sororities. Both are responsible for advancing the interest of High Point College, promoting the general interest and welfare of the fraternities/sororities as a whole, to insure cooperation between them in their relations with the faculty, administration, student body, and the public in general, and serve as the judicial body over the fraternities/sororities. This year IFC and Panhellenic joined together for the first time ever to work on strengthening greek relations and their image. To do this committees for scholarship, social service and greek week were established.

The Gamma Etas of Alpha Gamma Delta take pride in their spirit and involvement on High Point College campus. Several Gamma Eta's hold offices in SGA and Student Union. Many Alpha Gams are involved in sports such as field hockey and intramurals. The Sisters and Pledges of Alpha Gamma Delta share a special bond that is rarely found and is strengthened through our sisterhood. Respect in each other's weaknesses, strengths, and achievements makes Alpha Gamma Delta the perfect rose we strive to be.

Kappa Delta

We strive for that which is honorable, beautiful, and highest and have much fun in the process! Gamma Gamma chapter of Kappa Delta had a roaring start with 22 enthusiastic pledges at the conclusion of fall rush. With smiling faces and spirited outlooks, the Delts enjoyed three fantastic dances — Pledge Dance, Sisters Dance, and our annual White Rose Weekend — not to mention numerous fraternity mixers, Crush Party, and our Christmas celebration. Philanthropy was at its peak as the Kappa Delts held their bi-annual Rock-A-Thon for the Christian Childrens Hospital and collected dollars for the National Committee for Prevention of Child Abuse on St. Patrick's Day. The bonds of sisterhood strengthened with fundraisers, pizza parties, and just "hanging out" with each other on our rocking KD hall. Yes, friendship is feeling natural with another sister, shedding all pretense and just being yourself. Friendship is always found in Kappa Delta!

Founded: October 23, 1897

Colors: Olive green and pearl white

Flowers: White rose

Motto: "Let us strive for that which is honorable, beautiful, and highest"

Charity: Crippled Children's Fund

Tradition: KDs create and sell their own Christmas seals each year to raise money for their charity, the Crippled Children's Fund. KD is one of the Farmville Four, four sororities founded at Longwood College in Farmville, Va.

Zeta Tau Alpha

With the return of only 25 sisters, Zeta looked like a small family until after rush when 23 new pledges ran down the hall with beaming faces and high expectations as the sisters greeted them with tears and hugs. Our Kappa's were the best!

It was only natural to make the Kappas feel apart of Zeta right away. Our pledge advisors planned a picnic and a sleep over and encouraged everyone to go to school functions together. This made it possible for all the sisters and pledges to form a personal friendship.

The fraternity collected for UNICEF on Halloween and brought in a total of $273 in just one hour. Zeta's also visited Maryfield, which is a home for elderly citizens. Our annual walk-a-thon for ARC, the Association for Retarded Citizens, went well with full participation.

It was a big year of celebration for the Delta Gamma Chapter. It was our 30th anniversary! Zeta's worked hard to plan a full weekend of activities with the alumnae who flew in from several different cities to participate in the events. Although we are a large organization, each girl is unique and special because each one has something special to offer.

DELTA SIGMA PHI

Delta Sigma Phi, the fraternity of Engineered leadership. As 1986 came to an end we looked back with a great deal of pride. Our fall rush was one of the most successful in our history by pledging twenty-one men. We also established ourselves in intramural competition by winning the intramural title with a brotherhood of only twenty-five. Now as our seniors leave us the future looks very strong and the Best is yet to come.

Founded: December 10, 1899

School: College of the City of New York

Colors: Green and White

Charity: March of Dimes

Traditions: The fraternity symbols are the pyramid and Sphinx; some chapters build small pyramids on their front lawns. Many chapters hold an annual White Carnation Ball.

Lambda Chi Alpha

Iota-Phi has once again had a terrific year. We associated 16 quality men in the fall, bringing our chapter to 47 strong. Along with the mixers, dances and White Rose Weekend, we sponsored seminars on alcohol awareness and women's rights. We also helped with the American Cancer Society's Annual Jail-A-Thon, the Salvation Army's Kettle Drive and entertaining the children at Mills Home Orphanage.

Founded: November 2, 1909

Colors: Purple, Green and Gold

Flower: White Rose

Motto: Every Man A Man and Naught Without Labor

Tradition: The fraternity was an early pioneer in adopting an associate membership program for pledges. Pledges are given equal status with members at meetings and are involved fully in chapter activities as a pledge. It is the third largest fraternity in both number of campus chapters and number of initiates since its founding.

Coop: I think Mike is right, lets do it that way.

Oega Man: Yea, I'm in charge, but does that mean I have to go over Punky's head on this?

Tip: Time for another liver transplant!!!

Punky: All right now, I'm ill!!!

Potsie: I want to, but I feel guilty.

J.T.: Who cares if my parents moved and didn't tell me.

Johnny Law: I know it all, but no one wants to listen.

Weegbo: She is still the tightest I've ever had, that is next to Bonna.

Man Beast: The party is over!

Chief: Me and B.M. share everyTHANG!

Murbag: It died? That poor bunny rabbit.

Hoser: Sorry Chester, but the Johnson got hard.

Chester: Who should my girlfriend be tonight?

Convict: The Brothers want me to stop drinking? I'm acting too much like Rusty?

Flounder: Fat, Dumb and Stupid is no way to go through life, but hey, I'm making it.

Bum: Hell yea, I'm married to my b---!

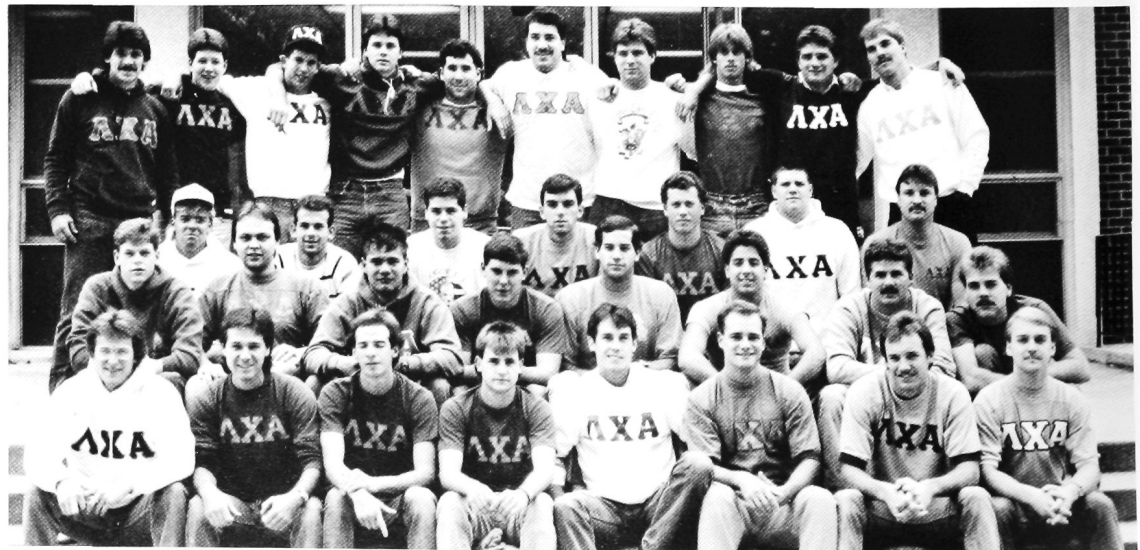

Otter: Exercise — with my physique?

Weiner: I'm obnoxious and annoying? Never!

Pi Kappa Alpha

Pi Kappa Alpha once again had a successful rush getting 21 new and active pledges.

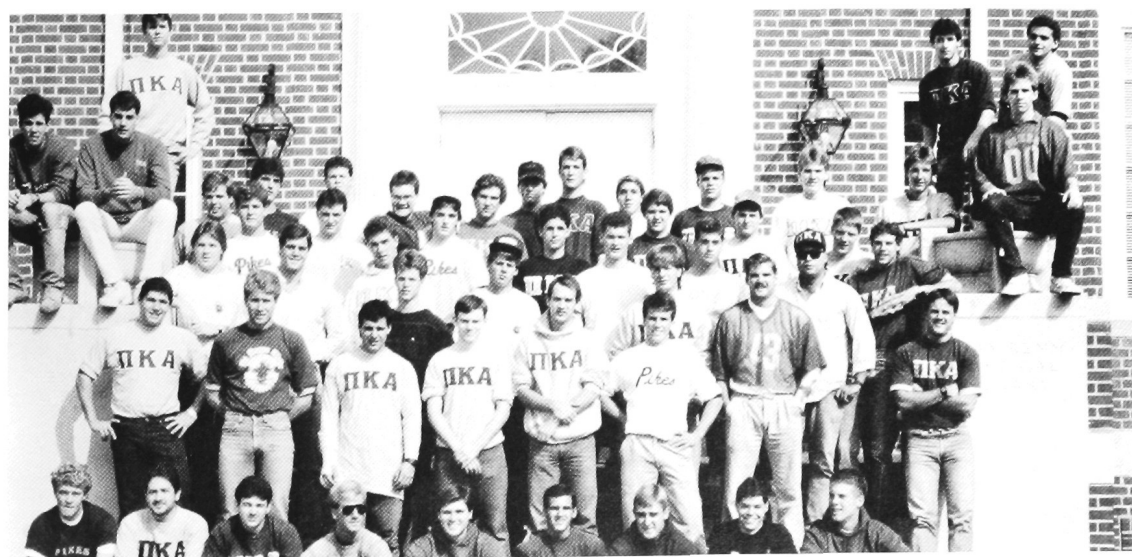

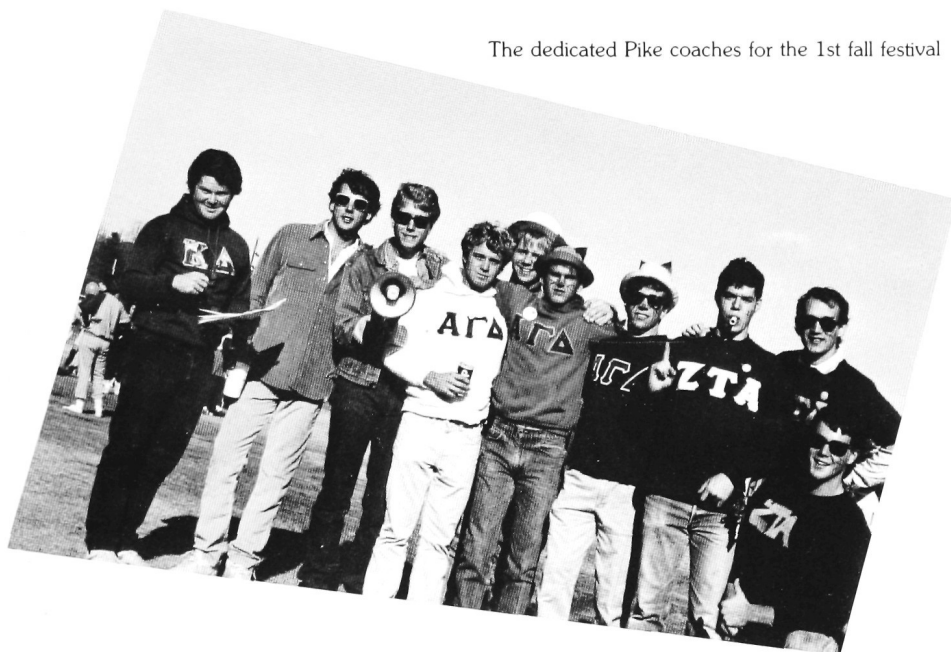

We started off the year winning the Ultimate Frisbee Championship, on our way toward a hopeful intramural championship.

The Pikes have been actively involved in school projects such as crimestoppers, phonathon. Also other community services such as Halloween at the Hospital. We also held a very successful first annual Fall Festival for the sororities on campus. Once again Pike is well represented at H.P.C. as can be seen in any organization and we are looking forward to our 35th anniversary next year.

We in Pi Kappa Alpha always look to the good times and lasting memories here at H.P.C.

THETA CHI

Our rush for the 1986-1987 academic year was very successful. We presented 10 bids and inducted 10 pledges in October. Theta Chi is growing in number every year and with that grows our strong unity and brotherhood.

We have incorporated a spring rush for little sisters to enhance our already thriving little sister program.

While Theta Chi mourns the loss of the famed Bong-Show, our TNDC was revived and given new spirit!!

THETA CHI TILL WE F DIE!!

Founded: April 10, 1856

School: Norwich University

Colors: Military red and white

Flower: Red carnation

Motto: Alma Mater First, and Theta Chi for Alma Mater; also Helping Hand

Traditions: Theta Chi's symbols are the snake and the crossed swords. The little sister groups are known as the Daughters of the Crossed Swords.

Warming up and building muscle are all part of a good player.

The field hockey team enjoyed warm weather throughout most of their season. This was an asset to those girls who got out on the field and ran around in short skirts. The team had an enjoyable season with four returning players and seven new additions.

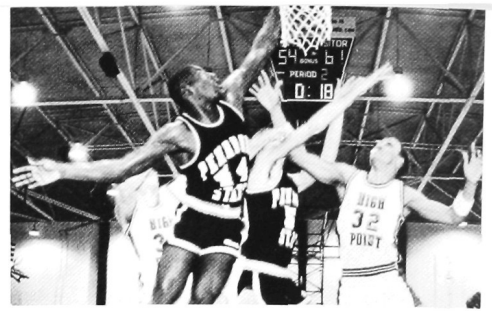

The tension rises as a ball nears the goal.

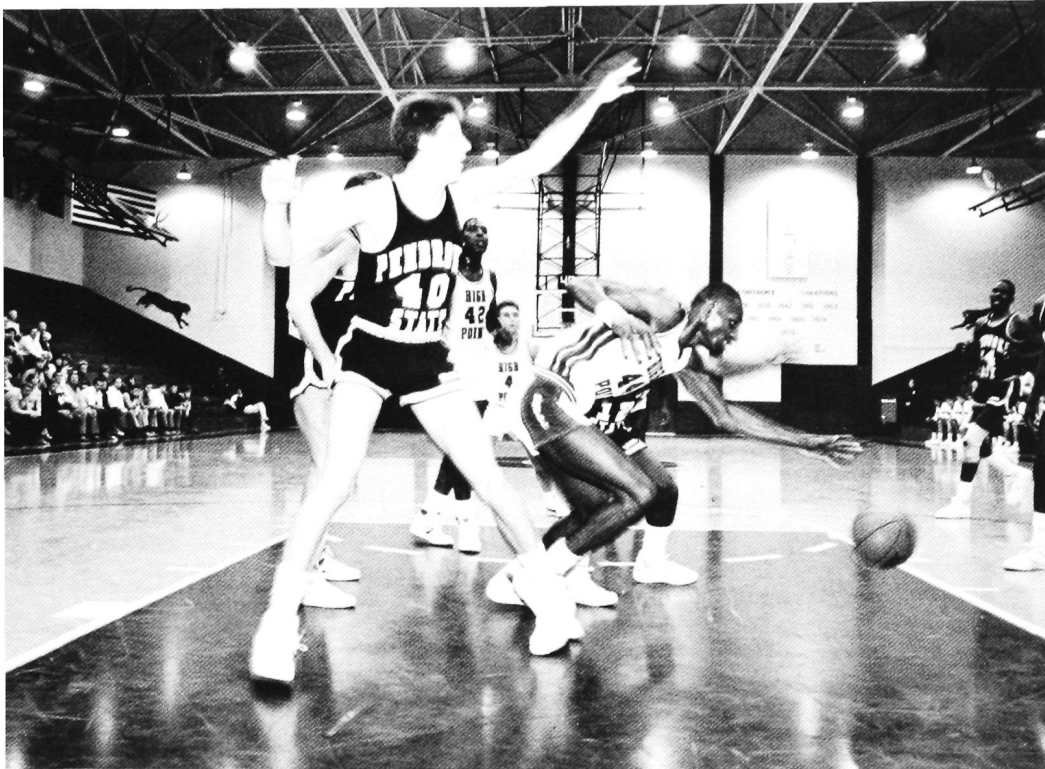

HPC players await their turn to dive into the action.

Drill Team

Lisa Albrecht, Trudi Boensch, Terry Fox, Leslie Landruv, Cindy Moore, Judie Perry, Kristi Pierce, Paula Reising, Sheila Smith, Jenny Wiese, Julie Wilson

High Point College's first annual Drill Team began this year as twelve girls took it upon themselves to organize a squad, select an advisor, and — with the help of that advisor — develop a constitution of guidelines. Performing at half-time of all men's home basketball games, the HPC Drill Team was a terrific attribute to both Panther spirit and team support.

The squad consists of ten members and two alternates that practice weekly to perform dance routines to such favorites as "Manhunt," "Shot Through the Heart," "The Men All Pause," and "Victory." With the help of the Student Government Association, the Office of Student Life, and the advisor, Tammy Pugh, the squad made a fantastic start, setting precedent for years to come.

JERRY STEELE NAMED TO NAIA HALL OF FAME

High Point College basketball coach Jerry Steele has been selected for induction into the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) Coaches Hall of Fame. The induction took place in Kansas City, Missouri, on Tuesday, March 17, 1987, during the NAIA Hillyard Hall of Fame Luncheon. The Hall of Fame Award is the NAIA's highest recognition.

The twenty-two year veteran has compiled an overall record of 360-259 with two NAIA schools. From 1962 to 1970 Steele posted a 151-74 record at Guilford College, leading the Quakers four times to the NAIA National Tournament.

Since 1972 Steele has led High Point College to an overall 209-185 mark and has participated in the National Tournament once, in 1979.

A native of Elkin, North Carolina, the 47-year old Steele has been named Carolinas Conference Coach of the year on five occasions, NAIA District 26 Coach of the Year three times and NAIA Area Seven Coach of the year once.

A 1961 graduate of Wake Forest University, Steele has twice led his teams to long winning streaks. In 1970 at Guilford the Quakers won twenty-nine consecutive games, finishing with a 32-5 record and a fourth-place finish in the national tournament.

In 1979 at High Point the Panthers won eighteen straight enroute to a 27-6 mark and a trip to the nationals.

Steele has coached five All-American players during his twenty-two years. Most notable among them were Bob Kauffman, an NBA number one draft choice at Guilford, in 1968; M. L. Carr, recently retired from the Boston Celtics, a freshman on Steele's 1970 team at Guilford; and Charlie Floyd, an All-American and NBA number three draft choice of the Washington Bullets, in 1979 at High Point.

Congratulations HPC Volleyball Team

The Lady Panthers volleyball team along with coach Debbie Trogdon finished their second consecutive season with an undefeated record. Because of their tremendous effort they earned a berth in the NAIA Nationals in Fort Worth, Texas on November, 20-22 and Coach Trogdon earned Carolinas Conference Coach of the Year for a second year. Even though the team lost the tournament they gained much experience and brought great pride to High Point College. Coach Trogdon said that next year the team will be "hungry to win the championship." With only 2 seniors on their current roster and their newly found experience it would not be surprising to see the Lady Panthers come home with the national title in the 1987 season!

A Day in the Life . . .

Getting up in the morning is hard for everybody, but when faced with a long (or even short) drive to school the effort is all that much more difficult. This is only one of the many unique problems that face a very exclusive crowd . . . the day students. These students must also handle such problems as where to spend the two hours between Biology and English and at what time to leave home in the mornings in case of slow moving buses or the continuously stopping garbage truck. Bad weather also serves as a problem for the commuter. Classes are not canceled because of inclement weather and the student who must drive has to sometimes make life or death decisions when determining whether to attempt the trip to school. But along with these and many other difficulties, being a day student has its definite advantages — ponder these for a moment: Mom's home cooking, a girlfriend or boyfriend just a short drive away, a lot of privacy, no huge phone bills, an escape at the end of the day and last, but certainly not least, a bed at night that is truly your own. By the way, being a day student is nice — always has been, always will be! — Teri Burchette

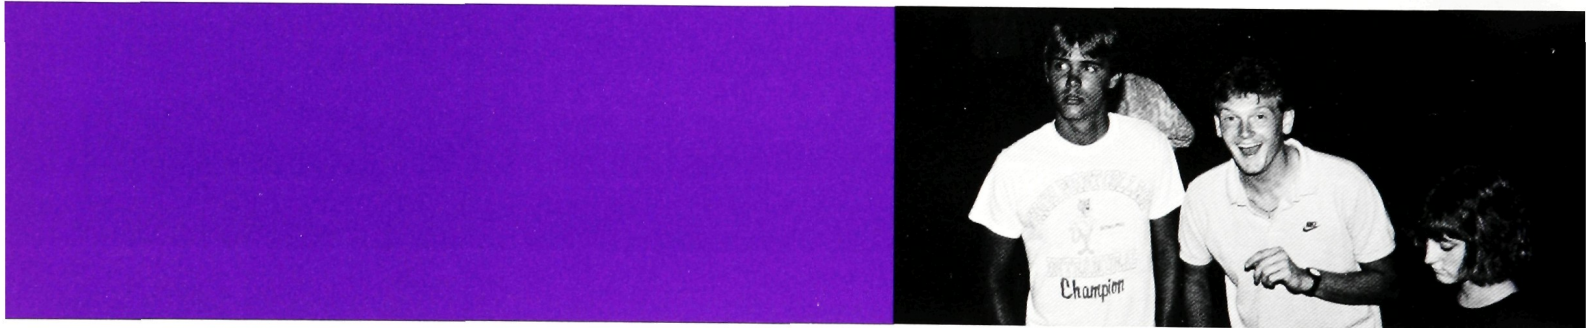

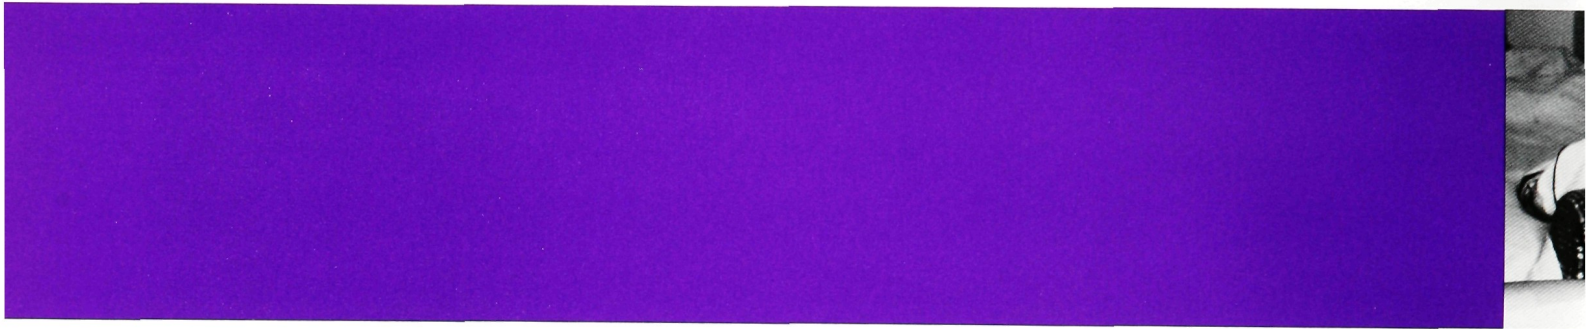

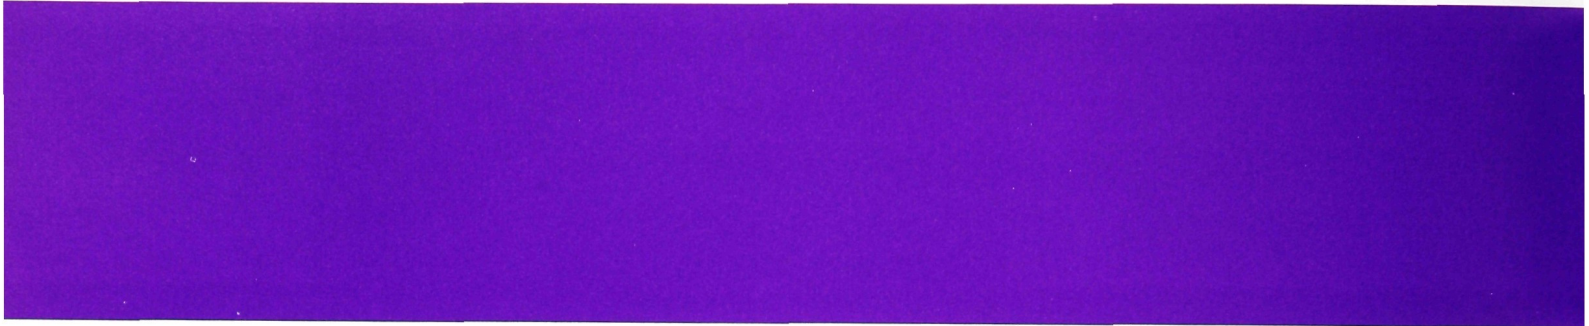

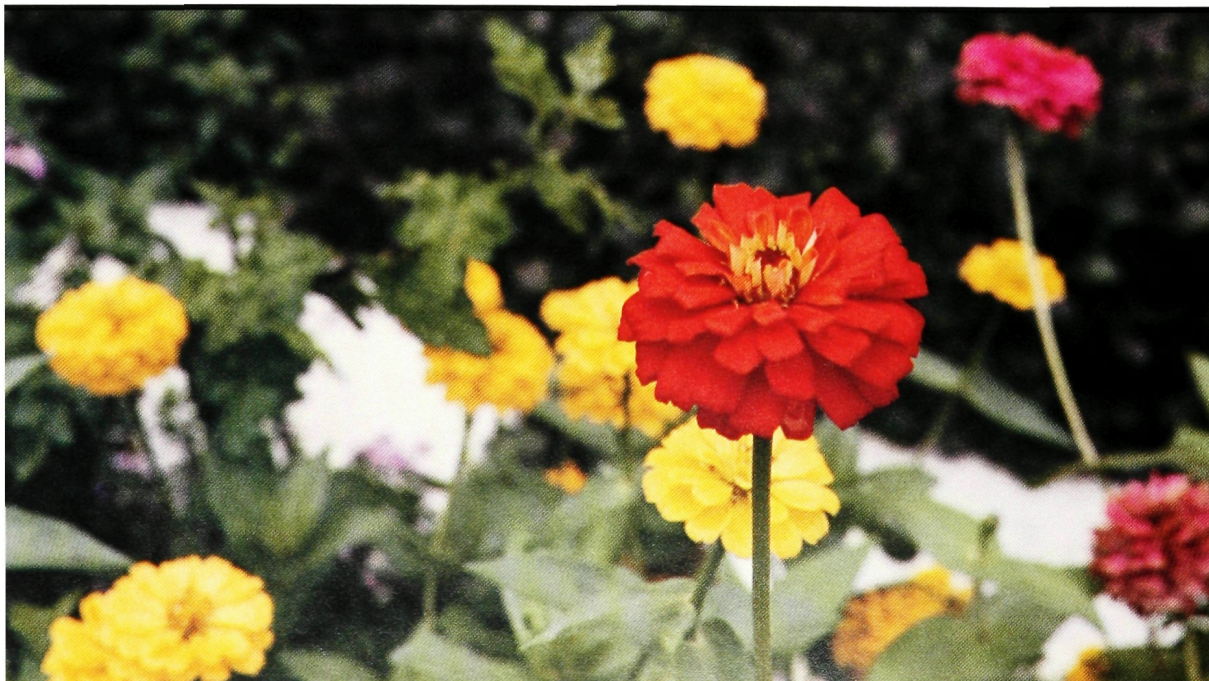

Generation of the Future

High Point College students are preparing themselves for the challenges and changes of the future. Through academic and activity participation.

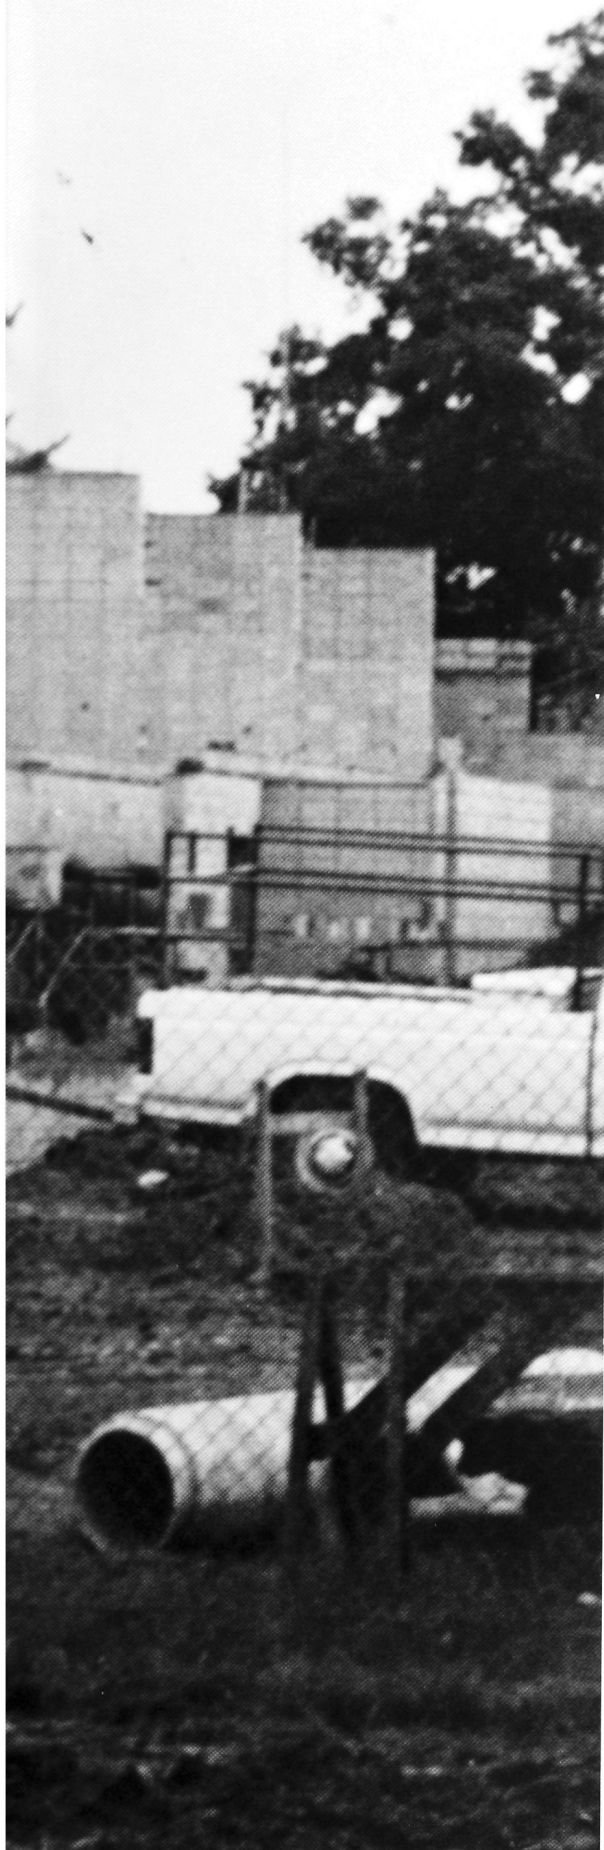

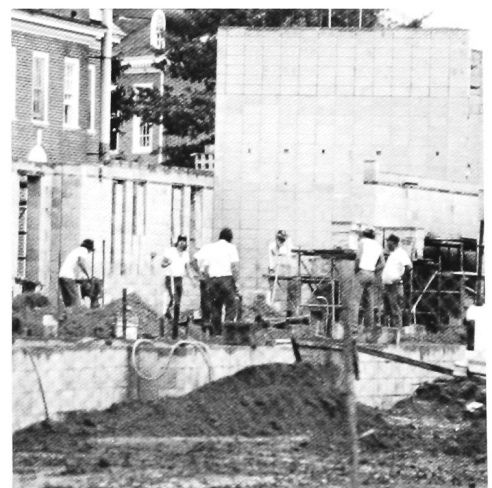

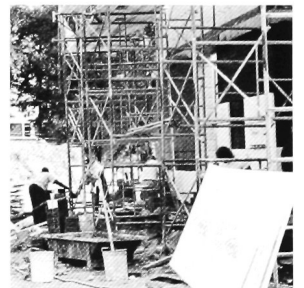

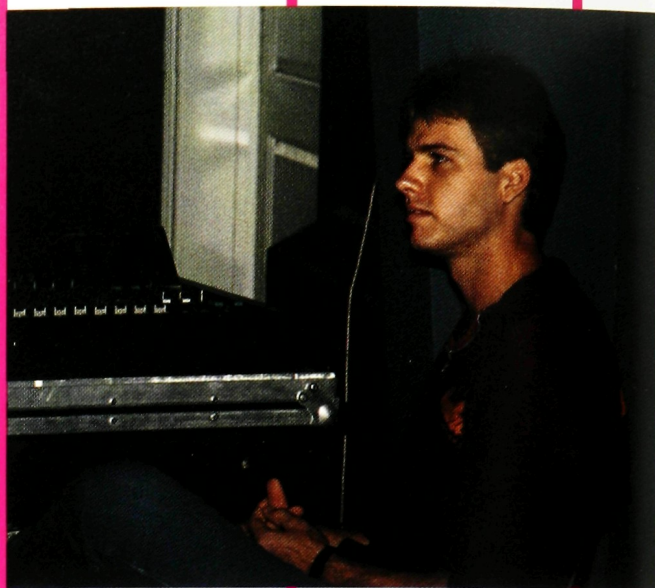

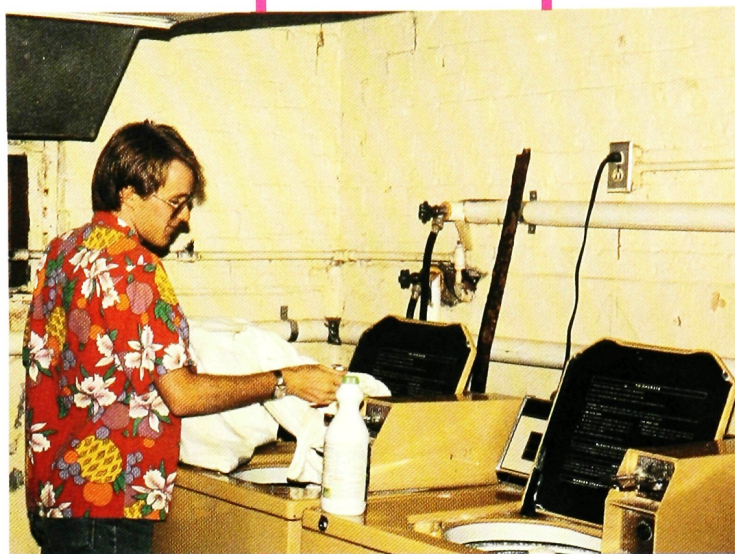

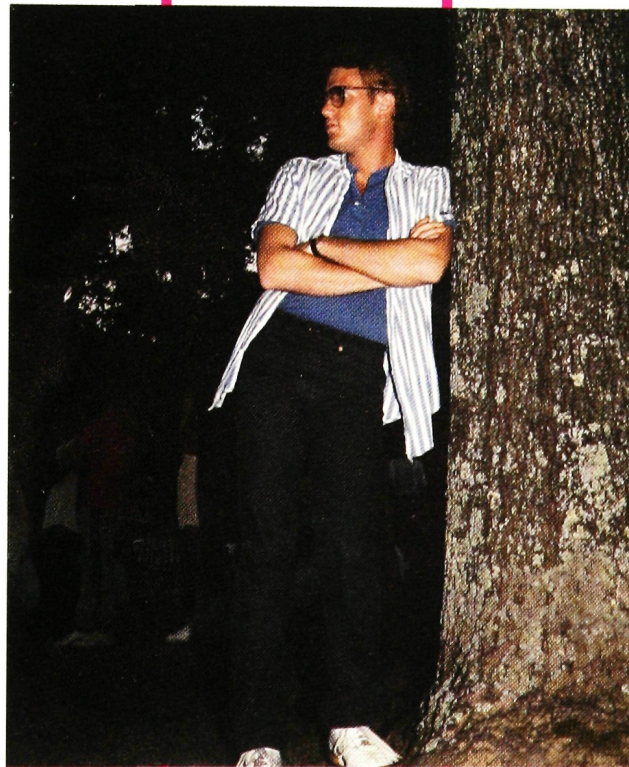

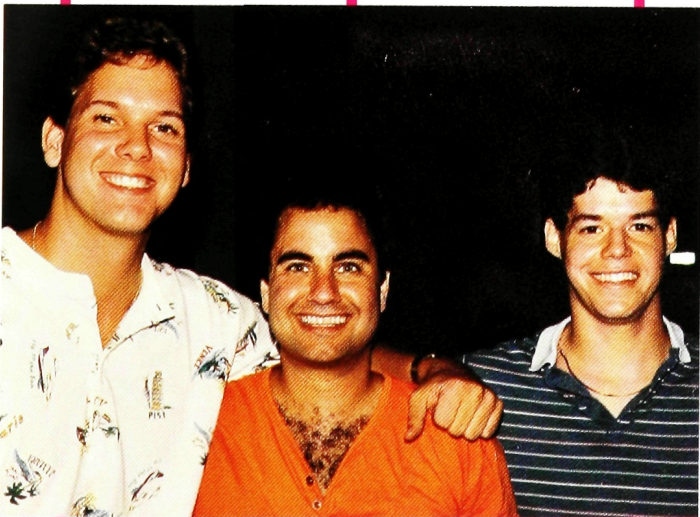

A New Dorm

The new men's dormitory was started in June of 1986 with a finished date set for the fall of 1987. The new dormitory will be the most sought after dorm on the campus. When finished it will house incoming freshmen men, be air conditioned, and accessible to handicapped students. The McColluch Hall will be torn down.

On Campus

And Around

A special effect added to many students cars have been the specialized license plates. It seems to be the new craze. Each personalized license plate purchased in North Carolina gives a percentage to the beautification of North Carolina highways.

Career Alumni Day

Each year alumni return to High Point College to speak with Juniors and Seniors who are interested in their field of work.

Career Development Center

As editor of the Zenith for the past three years I would like to say it has taught me more than I could have learned in any classroom. It has been my pleasure to edit the Zenith. I have tried to capture once in a lifetime moments, moments which are stepping stones in life. A cliché which describes the situation is, “no pain, no gain.” I feel that by producing three yearbooks I have accomplished something here at High Point. And last I would like to thank anyone who has helped me over the last three years. Deadlines got tough, but you all helped. Thanks, Melissa Mize
